I have examined your package and find I have every thing with a very few exceptions in Your English Coins are very fine. I have full sets from Edward VI to present time from Penny to Crown except (Cromwell 5s Shilling) also all early English at least one each in I think I have over 1.000 fine Tokens ——— I would like "Peeping Tom" but think it high have Godiva 1792. 3. 4. 5. & varieties — My Collection I think fine and embraces many rare pieces — and numbers over 12.000 pc ———

I will only send you a few duplicates for sale — Please do not put them in one place as a lot, but add them in three places, and keep account of the amounts — I could deliver more but it takes more time than I can give it in this season of the year.

I have over 40 teams and 100 men under my immediate charge and it requires my personal attention —

I have delivered the following from your lot sent for which I send money

Ethelbert Sluyter	1.50

Gentlemen

I send you by Ex (pre-paid) 24 and 1 Card (no value) Tokens. You can test your own figures when you sell them. This is nearly all the duplicates I have, except the common lead check tokens. I have one more of ½ Newport and ½ Swiacke and two of ½ York. and 3 or 4 of the ½ Belleville.

Mr. Mc. Lachlan wrote me for rubbings of about 20 tokens unknown to him, which I gave, and for a few that he could not procure any answers to his letters, requested the names of the right parties to write to. In a few cases he has been successful, but I do not think I had any duplicates (except 2) which I exchanged with him.

Sincerely Yours Thomas Warner

Gentlemen

I am receiving a great many letters from all branches of the Presbyterian Church in regard to the merits of "Communion Tokens" and all are pleased with it, and many express that the work was commenced soon too soon.

Some are to write articles for their respective papers and magazines on the subject of Tokens. They had no idea that the field was so broad and rich in Church history.

Sincerely

Thomas Warner

Mr. Rafaelle's father was killed a few days since — I send clipping —

June 3. 1890.

Gentlemen

Your favor with coins came to hand. I will take all except No. 16 at 1.25 I have a good one. A few of the Spanish Copper are not as good as I would like and when you get better ones I want you should exchange for the different. Philip III to Ferdinand VII. If the Engraving is fine I would like it. Do you know when it was engraved and where? Please Credit Mrs Warner on a/c Draft $20.00 and also find Draft for Mr. Rafaelle 6.87 He is home and a letter from him, says he is very much pleased with his coins. In your bill of coins of January 14. 1890. you charged me for Don Carlos 5 & 10 2.00 I bought 5 for 25 are they dated. Sorry to learn that this fine warm weather finds your Mother still in her long spell of ill-health.

Sincerely Yours
Thos. Warner

The catalogue of the "Parmelee Collection" came this morning. This is the first time I have seen the face of our friend Lorin G. Parmelee.

It would be idle for us to make any extended bids in this sale for I am aware it is a casket of gems and it will take a long purse. However if No. 660 should go at any thing reasonable I would like one lot out of this sale. My collection contained 4 of these farthings and they sold for 16c. I expect these will bring from 25 to 50 each. You did not answer about the portrait of Baron Stanbe. Thanks for the catalogue

Sincerely Yours.

I received a letter yesterday from R. H. Dole Esq. Ottawa, Canada. who wants a priced Catalogue of the Warren Collection – I answered him that you could furnish one illustrated for $5.00 and a plain one for about 1.00 exclusive of postage –

Yours Truly
Warren

Gentlemen

"Baron Steuben" came to hand. It is very fine and shall hand a good frame.

I think the Parmelee Collection is worthy of a better catalogue and must say it is a very ordinary and cheap affair — I shall be surprised if he is satisfied with it; and why should he placed it where he did?

Yours Truly

Dear Sirs

Pardon me for so long neglecting to answer your postal concerning the sale of Cabinet. I have been sick, and it was mislaid, I am pleased with the price, and at your earliest convenience would be glad of the money, as I have a payment to make out the last of this month

With kind regards
